

RESEARCH PARTNERSHIP

ATTENTION:

Health Professionals
Researchers

Would you like to make your research more useful by involving consumers as a collaborator in your research projects?

The Thames Valley Cancer Network Consumer
Research Partnership needs people like you!

Who are we?

Consumer Research Partnership Group consists of:

- Cancer Patients
- Carers
- Health Professionals
- People with an interest in cancer research

And we are linked to the National Cancer Research Network UK

What do we do?

- This group ensures the active involvement of consumers in cancer research projects within Thames Valley
- Acts as a consumer advisory body to professionals and researchers
- Members receive appropriate research training so they can be involved in collaborating with researchers on research projects across the Thames Valley
